

Regulations on the Master's Thesis Presentation Requirement for Graduation
Department of Teaching Chinese as a Second Language,
Chung Yuan Christian University
(Effective from the 112-2 semester)

1. The following academic conferences will be counted towards the graduation requirement for students in the Master's program:
 - (1) International academic conferences organized by the Department of Teaching Chinese as a Second Language .
 - (2) Relevant academic conferences organized by the Taiwan Association of Chinese Language Education and the World Chinese Language Education Association.
 - (3) Other international academic conferences related to the field of the Department.
2. If a student presents their paper at a conference not listed above, the presentation must be reviewed by the Department's Academic Development Committee. Only if approved will it be counted as part of the graduation requirement for the Master's program.

Conferences Approved for Graduation Requirement (as of the 112-2 semester):

2024 Zhanhua International Chinese Language Graduate and Undergraduate Academic Conference (Approved by the 112-2-3 Student Affairs Committee).